Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claims 1-6, 9, 43-49, 56 and 57 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention lacks patentable utility. The claiming of a waveform absent its corresponding structure for creating or absent a practical application it is deemed to be merely an naturally occurring phenomenon and or a mathematical expression and is therefore non-statutory.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Art Unit: 3762

Claims 1-6 and 9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In Claim 1, the magnitude of the terminal negative voltage is actually less than the magnitude of the maximum negative voltage in Figure 14 (the elected embodiment). Thus it would appear that Claim 1 is incorrect as written, thereby making the scope unclear. For art interpretation purposes, the maximum negative voltage magnitude is being read as greater than the terminal negative voltage magnitude as shown in Figure 14.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1-6, 9, 43-49, 56, 57, 64-70, 77 and 78 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being clearly anticipated by Baker, Jr. et al, US-5974339. Note in particular Figure 13.

Claims 1, 2, 5, 6, 9, 43-49, 56, 57, 64-70, 77 and 78 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Weiss, US-5184616. Note in particular Figure 8 at (124).

Claims 1, 2, 5, 6, 9, 43-49, 56, 57, 64-70, 77 and 78 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Brink, US-5725560. Note in particular Figure 8 at (145).
